

Warwickshire by Hematical

The Warwickshire players are those who played in the final county championship match of 2012
<http://www.espnccricinfo.com/county-cricket-2012/engine/current/match/542551.html>

Across

1 Warks pace bowler who pioneered using flight (6)

4 Rocks international conference leaders with allegiance, ultimately, to third powers (3,5)

10 Digging up the past, smashing a holy grace ring (11)

11/28 Nuclear contamination, not fluorine, finished off bats (3,3)

12 Oriental regularly wronged during Christian festival (9)

13 Symbol is satisfactory with a number on the outside (5)

14 Put one's foot down when mother left ancient elephant with nothing in its belly (5,2)

16 Bring together business in this vicinity (6)

20 Bets all off, initially, ruined by German attackers in WW2 (1-5)

21 Time to wrap up 900% increase (7)

24 Spinner holding sawn-off weapon gets to dress in finery (3,2)

26 Do nothing unusual to arm clan in uproar (3,6)

28 See 11

29 Ingest cocaine, perhaps, and leave in a hurry (4,1,6)

30 Risks holding line with things hanging down (8)

31 Dry hem spoiled by fictional doctor's alter ego (2,4)

Down

1 You and I hug tree along with small Warks all-rounder (6)

2 Broken can is part of what's studied in 10 (5)

3 Left on a journey due to unconvincing support for chief (6,3)

5 Warks batsman to hack deserter's tail off (6)

6 Yell, being tense under pressure in the vault (5)

7 Need water supply after brilliant opening for Warks all-rounder (9)

8 Second computer peripheral changes hands for a small piece of wood (8)

9 Warks keeper, also a former US President (7)

15 Warks batsman to finally beat violent heavyweight (9)

17 Out of sorts cricket side to pass round ancient city (3-6)

18 Warks batsman's son found in soaked timber (8)

19 Ten bats broken leading to nuclear treaty (which would be unwelcome at Edgbaston!) (4,3)

22 Publican got rid of rising water for Warks medium-pacer (6)

23 Warks all-rounder puts both hands (separately) into gateau (6)

25 Warks spinner missing bottom parts of kneecap (5)

27 Warks batsman can carry heads of daisies and dahlias (5)